The 7th Annual
Mount Pearl Frosty Film Festival

RULES AND REGULATIONS

About the Festival

The Mount Pearl Frosty Festival was started in 2006, with the first official screenings occurring in February. Now in its 7th year, the festival continues to celebrate local film and video amidst the snow and ice of Newfoundland winters. Presently the festival is a single evening event, coinciding with the Mount Pearl Frosty Festival.

This year's event will take place at The Soccer Hut, located off Smallwood Drive, in Mount Pearl on February 5, 2012.

Film Eligibility and Format

Presently, we are featuring films with a Newfoundland connection. This includes films with cast or crew born or living in Newfoundland. It may also include a film principally filmed within Newfoundland. Finally, in keeping with the spirit of AAMP, the founding entity of the festival, any member of AAMP may submit one of their works.

There is no limit on Running Time for submitted works, though short films are preferred, due to programming issues.

The preferred submission and exhibition format is DVD, although VHS will be accepted as well. At present the festival does not have the ability to display films in Betacam, mini-DV, or film. Your submission print will be the exhibition print.

Entry Fee

There is NO ENTRY FEE.
